THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. The work of ratifying the anti-slavery action of Congress goes bravely on. Already the Legislatures of Illinois, Maine, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Michigan, Massachusetts, West Virginia, and Missouri, have ratified the amendment. The Legislatures of West Virginia and Massachusetts were unanimous, and in Missouri there were but the House. The Ohio Legislature was to have voted on it last Wednesday, and we presume did ratify it by a large majority.

P. S. The Ohio Legislature ratified the Constitutional amendment by a vote of 25 to 4 in the Senate, and 58 to 12 in the House-a strict. ly party vote.

Opening of Presidential Election Certificates. The two houses of Congress met in the Hall of the House of Representatives on the 8th inst. and counted the certified votes for President and Vice President of the United States. Mr. Lincoln was declared elected President, and Mr. Johnson Vice President. Whereabouts of the 72d Regiment

From a letter received from a member of t 72d, we learn that the Regiment is now encamped at Eastport, Miss., on the Tennessee river Considering the recent hardships the Regiment has recently undergone, the health of the men is good, though there is some sickness among Great Fire in Philadelphia.

On the 8th inst., a fire broke out in the works on Ninth and Federal streets, Philadelphia. Forty-seven three story buildings and two thousand barrels of oil were consumed .-Fifteen persons, mostly women and children lost their lives.

The Peace Project. It is now pretty well understood that the late attempts to make peace have failed. The Rebthat the rebel commissioners demanded, before they would listen to any terms of peace whatever, an immediate cessation of hostilities and a ninety days' armistice. This the President could not accede, rightly saying that when the Government ceased bostilities it must be final, The President presented the subject of peace to them in every conceivable form, suggesting the most liberal and considerate modification of whatever in the existing legislation and action of the United States government might be re garded as specially hostile to the rights and interests or wounding to the pride of the Southern people. It is said that the President even went so far as to say to them that a general amnesty would be extended to all rebels, and that the Confiscation act should be repealed, only requiring them to lay down their arms, yield obedience to the Government, carry out in good faith the Emancipation Proclamation, and the several seceded States to assume their lawful position in the Government; but in no single particular could he induce them to swerve for a mo ment from their demand for an armistice. They even refused to say, were an armistice granted

The President and Mr. Seward, finding all attempts at an honorable peace abortive, ter-minated the interview, after having it distinctly understood and explicitly stated that the at-titude of the Government and the rebels was to be precisely what it would have been if this interview had never taken place. The action of the President was unanimously approved by the Cabinet.

Horrible Tripple Murder-On Monday night last, a young man name Frank Bivins, aged 22 years, at Woodstock, Michigan, murdered his father, mother, and young wife, by shooting them with a revolver. After committing the act, he set fire to the house, which was entirely consumed, and the remains of the murdered persons partially consumed. Bivins was arrested at Grafton in this State, and has made a full confession of his guilt. He gives as a reason for the act, that he had made a marriage engagement with a young lady at Grafton, and wanted his wife out of the way that there might be no impediment to the marriage, and that he murdered his father and mother that he might come into the possession of their property and thereby be enabled to maintain his new wife. The prisoner appears to be of sound mind and perfectly indifferent
